It is noted that this document does not disclose all such risks, and is meant to inform users that trading in Forex, may result in substantial loss of funds and/or complete loss of funds in excess of your initial margin funds, and therefore should only be undertaken with risk capital. If you do not thoroughly understand the risks involved in foreign exchange trading - do not trade. Warren Bowie and Smith strongly recommends that any user considering trading foreign exchange currency or commodities, should first thoroughly read this risk disclaimer and understand risks and losses inherent to Forex trading.

It is your responsibility to carefully consider your investments prior to committing funds for foreign exchange trading. Before you consider undertaking any transactions with Warren Bowie and Smith, you should carefully consider whether such trading is suitable in light of your own financial position and investment objectives. Foreign exchange trading is commonly known as a double-edge sword as the risks or losses involved are equivalent to the potential to gain.

Placing contingent orders, such as "stop-loss" or "stop-limit" orders that are intended to limit losses to certain amounts may not always work because market conditions or technological limitations may make it impossible to execute such orders. Should a client trade using such orders or strategy they do so accepting this risk.

Certain market conditions may make it difficult or impossible to execute orders at a stipulated price.

A spread position may be as risky as a simple long (or short) position and can be more complex.

The high degree of leverage associated with these types of investments means that the degree of risk compared to other financial products is higher. Leverage (or margin trading) may work against you resulting in substantial loss as well as for you resulting in substantial gain.

The insolvency of Warren Bowie and Smith or of a Bank or Broker used by Warren Bowie and Smith to effect transactions on your behalf may lead to your positions being closed out against your wishes.

You are hereby advised that the transactions undertaken through the dealing services of Warren Bowie and Smith may be of a speculative nature. They may give rise to large losses within a relatively short period of time, which cannot be forecast and which may sustain a total loss of the funds deposited with Warren Bowie and Smith. These losses may be attributed to adverse market movements, to position build-up or to the accumulation of commission and charges relating to the transactions.

Your attention is expressly drawn to the fact that the nature of the transactions executed on your instruction, by Warren Bowie and Smith may be non-readily realizable in the case of a currency traded so irregularly or infrequently that it cannot be certain that a price will be quoted at all times or that it may be difficult to effect transactions at a price which may be quoted owing to an absence of a counter party.

The foreign currency trading that you are entering into is not conducted on an exchange. Warren Bowie and Smith may act as counterparty in these transactions and therefore, may act as the buyer when you sell and the seller when you buy. As a result, Warren Bowie and Smith interests may be in conflict with yours, unless otherwise specified in your written agreement or other written documents. Warren Bowie and Smith establishes the prices at which it offers to trade with you; the prices Warren Bowie and Smith offers might not be the best prices available and Warren Bowie and Smith may offer different prices to different clients.
